

Brief Interview with Dr. Jian Tie (Editor-in-Chief)

Journal of Forensic Research

1. How many years have you been associated with the current research?

Over 25 years.

2. What is the research topic you are working on now?

My research topic is individual identification in mass disaster.

3. What are attributes for a quality article?

It should be having unique opinion.

4. Do you have any research funding (NIH or other national funding) now?

My research is partly supporting by Japan Society for the Promotion of Science KAKENHI now.

5. When did you become an editor of OMICS Journal?

That was beginning three years ago.

6. Where can the journal find the maximum scope in terms of niche?

We must make constant communications with the experts in the field.

7. What is your greatest career accomplishment?

My career accomplishment is that I became a forensic expert.

8. How does the published scientific content assist the potential researchers?

My greatest concern is how to found out an interest topic in present studies.

9. What is the purpose of serving as an editor?

Let more peoples like you journal.

10. Do you have any patents?

No, I don't have any patents now.

11. Have you contributed any editorials or papers (any types) to OMICS Journals in the past two years?

I think I have made efforts to support the journal.

12. Do you plan to contribute any editorials or papers to OMICS Journals in the next year?

Yes, I will.

13. How would you define your experience with OMICS Group?

Do my best to support the journal.

14. Your opinion on conducting Editorial Board meetings at related Conferences?

It is necessary before the Conference.

15. Would you recommend OMICS to your friends or colleagues?

Yes, I often recommend to my colleagues.

16. How do you differentiate Journal of Forensic Research with other journals in the field?

I like the journal of forensic research, and I think that we need more time to let peoples know it is a good journal in forensic field.